

Parent/ Caregiver Series

This year we are offering a parent series on the second Tuesday of each month on topics that parents have shared with us. Sessions will be held in the RSS library from 6:30-8:00pm with a streaming option available for parents who would prefer to join from home. More information and bios for the presenters can be found on the School District Website and links will be sent out before each presentation.

When: January 14th 6:30-8:00pm

Where: RSS Library

Understanding Teen Sexual Health (geared toward caregivers of teens aged 11-18, but open to anyone) with Jessica Wyslouzil

We will discuss relationships, boundaries, consent, pregnancy and prevention, STI's and prevention, and where to find great resources, support and info.

Jessica Wyslouzil, Sex Educator, LPN, Yoga Teacher, Owner of Trailblaze Sex Education.

Jessica has been a nurse for 17 years, and a sex educator for 4 years. She has trained under Options for Sexual Health, Dr Nadine Thornhill SE, Anne Hodder-Ship SE, Dr Bianca Laureano SE, and Cam Fraser Sexologist. She is a parent of a local teen, and lives and works of the unceded lands that have been stewarded by the Sinixt, Secwepemc, Syilx, and Ktunaxa nations (and is an ally to the land back movement). She believes that excellent sex ed is the foundation to true wellness through your lifespan.
